THE HISTORY OF PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY

ESTABLISHMENT

1876

Prairie View A&M University, the first state-supported college in Texas for African Americans, was established during the Reconstruction period after the Civil War. This was the historical period when political and economic special interest groups were able to aggressively use the federal government to enact public policy designated to “alter or reshape the cultural milieu of the vanquished Southern state.” The University had its beginning in the Texas Constitution of 1876 which, in separate articles, established an “Agricultural and Mechanical College” and pledged that “Separate schools shall be provided for the white and colored children, and impartial provisions shall be made for both.” As a consequence of these constitutional provisions, the Fifteenth Legislature established “Alta Vista Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas for Colored Youth” on August 14, 1876.

ENROLLMENT OF THE FIRST STUDENTS

1878

The Board of Directors purchased the Alta Vista Plantation (1,338 acres) from Mrs. Helen Marr Kirby, the widow of the late Col. Jared Ellison Kirby. The College was named “Alta Vista Agricultural and Mechanical College for Colored Youth.” The Board, authorized to appoint a principal to administer the College, selected L.W. Minor of Mississippi. Eight young African American men, the first to enroll in a state-supported college in Texas, began their studies on March 11, 1878.

ERA OF PRINCIPALS AS CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

1878 - 1948

Prairie View strengthened and enlarged its curriculum and grew under the leadership of a series of dedicated principals. These men led the College during those difficult decades as Federal Reconstruction ended and the doctrine of “separate but equal” emerged with the Plessy v. Ferguson Supreme Court decision of 1896. The eight principals and their tenures were: L.W. Minor, 1878; E.H. Anderson, 1879-1884; Laurine C. Anderson, 1884-1894; Edward L. Blackshear, 1895-1915; Isaiah M. Terrell, 1915-1918; J.G. Osborne, 1918-1925; Paul (Uncle Paul) Bledsoe (Interim Principal), 1925-1926; Willette Rutherford Banks, 1926-1947; and Edward B. Evans, 1947-1948.

ERA OF PRESIDENTS AS CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS

1948 to Present

In 1948, as a result of America emerging as the leader of the “Free World” after World War II, President Harry S. Truman ordered the racial integration of the U.S. Armed Forces. The Board of Directors changed the title of the Chief Administrative Officer of the College from Principal to President on December 3, 1948. The Presidents and their tenures are: Edward B. Evans 1948-1966; Jesse M. Drew, 1966; Alvin I. Thomas, 1966-1982; Ivory Nelson (Interim President), June 1982-January 1983; Percy A. Pierre, 1983-1989; Milton R. Bryant (Interim President), June 1989-December 1989; Julius W. Becton, Jr., 1989-1994; Harold S. Bonner (Interim President), August 1994-October 1994; Charles A. Hines, 1994-2002; Willie A. Tempton, Sr. (Interim President), 2002-2003; George C. Wright, 2003-2017; Ruth J. Simmons, 2017-present.

NAMES GIVEN TO THE UNIVERSITY

1876 - 1973

The Fifteenth Legislature (August 14, 1876) established “Alta Vista Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas for Colored-Youth.” The Sixteenth Legislature (April 19, 1879) established “Prairie View State Normal School” in Waller County for the training of colored teachers. The Twentieth Legislature attached the words Agriculture and Mechanical Department of Prairie View Normal School. The Twenty-sixth Legislature (1889) changed the name to “Prairie View State Normal & Industrial College.” The Forty-ninth Legislature (June 1, 1945) changed the name to “Prairie View University.” The Fiftieth Legislature (March 3, 1947) established “The Texas State University of Negroes” (now Texas Southern University) and changed the name of Prairie View University to “Prairie View Agriculture and Mechanical College of Texas.” The Sixty-third Legislature (1973) changed the name to Prairie View A&M University.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

COURTNEY JOHNSON ROSE '06

Courtney Johnson Rose '06 is the Chief Executive Officer of George E. Johnson (GEJ) Development, Inc. and its affiliate company George E. Johnson Properties, which is a full-service firm specializing in development services, master planning, residential and commercial brokerage services.

In her role as Principal Broker, Courtney is responsible for overseeing all operations of the firm, business development, and management of all the licensed real estate agents operating under the GEJ Properties brand. Under her leadership, the firm has obtained several institutional clients, including Houston Community College System, Houston Independent School District, FDIC, Mental Health and Mental Retardation Association of Houston, Veterans Administration, and Fannie Mae. The firm has also represented Liberty Bank, Lonestar Bank, and Chase Bank on the disposition of real estate assets. In addition to their corporate clients, the firm works with several small businesses, families, and individuals on their real estate needs.

Courtney obtained her Bachelor's degree in Business and Economics from the University of Texas at Austin and earned her Master's in Community Development from Prairie View A&M University, where she is currently an Associate Professor as part of the Master in Community Development Program. In 2016 and 2018, Courtney was honored to be named Outstanding Faculty Member of the Year for her program. Courtney is also a graduate of the Texas Association of Realtors Leadership Program, the Graduate Realtor Institute, and she has obtained the distinguished Certified Commercial and Investment Member (CCIM) designation. Courtney has also successfully completed the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Business Initiatives Program and Leadership Houston Class XXXI.

Courtney was featured in the Houston Business Journal Inaugural Class as one of their Top 40 under 40 Business Leaders in Houston and by the Houston Association of Realtors as one of their Top 20 under 40 Real Estate Professionals in the Houston area. She was also featured in Realtor Magazine, Empower Magazine, Houston Realtor, and Real Estate Executive. In 2013, she created and hosted an informative real estate show entitled Real Estate Today that appeared on Comcast.

In 2019, Courtney was appointed by the Governor to the Texas State Affordable Housing Corporation. Courtney also serves on the Board of Directors and as Chair of the Real Estate Committee for the Greater Houston Partnership, the Houston Land Bank Board of Directors, and was appointed as a Commissioner for her city's Planning and Zoning Commission. Courtney serves as First Vice President of the National Association of Real Estate Brokers, and she is the Immediate Past Chair of the Board for the Greater Houston Black Chamber and the current Chair of the Board for the Texas Association of African American Chambers.

An active member in her local community, she has served as Co-Chair of the Economic Development and the Long-Range Planning committees for Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. – Suburban Ft. Bend Chapter, and she is currently a Precinct Chair for her County for the Democratic Party of Texas. Courtney has been married to Teeba Rose for 15 years, and they have been blessed with two children.

PRAIRIE VIEW A&M UNIVERSITY

HONOR ROLL

Designing Our Tomorrow Today
Building on Our Legacy

Published at the end of each semester of the academic year, the University Honor Roll includes qualifying students who have carried a minimum 12 semester hours course load, maintained a 3.50 GPA or greater (not including developmental courses), and earned no grade lower than C.

Dean's Honors includes qualifying students who have carried a minimum 12 semester hours course load and maintained a GPA between 3.0 and 3.49 (not including developmental courses).

As final action cannot always be taken by the time the program is printed, the list of candidates given here is tentative only. The University reserves the right to withdraw or add names.

Dear Prairie View

Dear Prairie View, our song to thee we raise
In gratitude, we sing our hymn of praise,
For mem'ries dear, for friends and recollections,
For lessons learned while here we've lived with thee,
For these we pledge our hearts full of devotion,
To serve thee now, and through eternity.

As days go by, our hearts will not grow cold,
We'll love thy purple royal and thy gold,
We'll through our lives exemplify thy teachings,
We'll always strive a blessing to be.
Thy children we our love and pride confessing,
We'll love thee now, and through eternity.

Words by O. Anderson Fuller
Music from "Finlandia" by Silbelius
